

Iris Douglasiana

Douglas Iris

 David Douglas

Douglas Iris is a vigorous growing California native perennial. It grows in clumps of arching, evergreen leaves, where there is moderate water available. Lavender-blue to near white flowers appear in late Winter to early Summer, on 1+ foot tall stems. Plant in full sun to light shade on the coast, light shade inland. Wildlife resistant once established. Pollinator friendly.

Common Name

Douglas Iris

Zone

Zone 6

Mature Size

18

Bloom Time

February - May

Plant Type

Bulb

Flower Color

Shades of Lavender Blue to White

715 S Bank Road
Elma, Washington
United States 98541

Tel: 1-800-444-1515
Fax: 360-482-6187

Quality That Grows™