A hybrid of Daphne odora and Daphne bholua, 'Perfume Princess' blooms early and long. Deliciously fragrant pink flowers emerge in Mid-Winter and continue through Spring. Blooms along the stem as well as at each branch tip.

The plant maintains a dense upright bush shape with glossy green pointed leaves. Good disease resistance.

Un-fussy, grows almost anywhere. It'll grow in any soil but prefers soils that are slightly acid and free draining. Full sun to part shade.
