Berberis Thunbergii

Golden Rocket

Michal Andrusiv

Narrow & upright growing, this pillar of goldenchartruse foliage will have you taking a third look! Excellent as a formal hedge, markers for a formal exit/entry, or to add an out-of-the-ordinary accent. Birds love the Winter red berries.

Full sun to partial shade. Would enjoy some protection from the hottest sun. Likes well drained soil.

Drought tolerant & wildlife resistant, once established.
